Adam	Bradford	I am in desperate need of prayer. My wife left our home three weeks ago and has not come back. She is staying with her mother who has been against our relationship since the beginning and is an advocate for divorce. My step-daughter has also been a major source of our fighting as well through the years, thus the source of our recent turmoil, and now that she is grown and married herself, there is still much hurt from the past in our relationships, for she has never accepted me but has always considered me as her enemy, which in turn had turned me against her. Please pray for the restoration of our marriage, the healing of our hurts and that in all of this, our Lord will be glorified. I have no peace and I am suffering due that my wife is gone. I admit my failures as a husband and turn from them and will do all required of me to be righteous and loving to my wife. I have repented of aggravating the situation and trying to control the outcome of everything. I have also repented of everything that I have possibly done to tear at the hedge of God's protection around our house and marriage. Please pray for my step-daughter that her heart would soften towards me and for a renewal be made in our relationship as well. Pray for my wife's return to our home and that she will be protected from bad influences that would assure her that divorce is the answer. I love my wife with my whole being and I miss her so very badly. Thank you.
Barbara	Hussey	Update: thank you first of all for praying for my family for the past month. My sweet mother, Mae Delph went peacefully to be with the LORD this morning, May 12th. My request is that Yah will give us strength and shalom for the days ahead, and also for wisdom for all the things we need to do now. Thank all of you so much!!

Jay & Molly	Page (& Sons)	I need prayer for my sons family. His wife resigned her full time position earlier this week, and requested part-time instead. Her boss contacted her today to inform her they are cutting back on part-time staff, and may only be able to give her weekends, she is getting depressed, she does not like being at home. Now, their two year old, who has been having Early Intervention, has been recommended for a hospital study, the word 'autism' has been mentioned. Of-course, we will all love him, no matter what, and Abba is in control, but they don't know Him. Please pray for them all. Molly is the one who had a liver transplant, so both babies were subjected to Molly's meds while she was carrying them, Gavin is still only 2 months old, so too early to tell. please keep in prayer, thank you all
Kandis	Bordi	Please pray for my daughter Kandis Bordi and a young man named Dustin Diaz. They are struggling with fighting off HaSatan. We could really use your support and prayers for YHWH to intervene.
Adam	Bradford	Dear Brothers and Sisters in Yeshua, Please pray that the Lord will heal, restore and strengthen my marriage. Thank you and God Bless You, Adam Bradford
